9 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

10 Plaintiff,

11 v.

12 ALEX SORIA,

13 Defendant.
14

2:11-cr-0156-LDG-RJJ

ORDER

15 Defendant Soria filed an emergency motion to continue trial or dismiss Counts 10 and 11
16 (#74, response #77, reply #78, supplemental memo #80), and the court conducted a hearing on the 17 motion on this date. While the relevance of the recently produced Social Security Administration
18 medical records to whether Soria concealed that he was engaged in substantial and gainful activity
19 during the time he was receiving disability benefits remains indefinite, the court finds that, in the 20 interest of justice and out of an abundance of caution, a continuance of the scheduled trial is 21 warranted. The court further finds that there are neither grounds to support a dismissal of Counts
22 10 and 11, nor a determination of outrageous government conduct or a Brady violation with 23 respect to the production. Accordingly,

24 THE COURT HEREBY ORDERS that defendant Soria's motion to continue trial (#74) is 25 GRANTED. The current trial date of May 7, 2012, is hereby VACATED. Trial shall be 26

1 rescheduled for Monday, July 16, 2012, at 9:00 am. Calendar call shall be Tuesday, July 3, 2012,
2 at 8:30 am.

3 THE COURT FURTHER ORDERS that, barring unforeseen circumstances out of the 4 parties' control, no further continuances shall be granted.

5 THE COURT FURTHER ORDERS that within two (2) days from the filing of this order,
6 defendant Soria shall submit a stipulation to continue trial with reference to the Speedy Trial Act.
